Wine List

Our wine list is progressive: succulent Riesling and Moscato d’Asti with rich, natural sweetness and firm acidity to boldly structured Cabernet Sauvignon from Italy and California... and a few fabulous wines in between.

We’ve also included critical reviews of wines that received exceptional scores.

Many wines listed were also reviewed with glowing remarks, but did not make the 90+ rating or Tre Bicchieri (3 Glasses—the highest rating possible from Gambero Rosso—the most coveted rating for Italian wines).

We’ve provided you with critical commentary from Robert Parker’s The Wine Advocate (RP), Steven Tanzer International Wine (ST) and The Wine Spectator (WS).

Keep in mind, reviews are simply opinions. Yours is the one that counts the most.

Enjoy!

Join us every Wednesday for half-off bottles of wine under $65!

Sangiovese

Italy's international chosen one. Grown in many regions of Tuscany and showing different characteristics from each – much like a child reared by different parents in different places. Some things stay the same, some things are "tweaked" a bit. Chianti is the most famous. Brunello di Montalcino is the most revered. International blends with Sangiovese, Cabernet Sauvignon, and other bold grapes are grouped into a category known as "Super Tuscan", Cabernet Sauvignon serves as the foundation of most of these wines. They are completed and improved by blending Merlot, Cabernet Franc, Malbec, and sometimes Petit Verdot or Syrah. These wines are the most beloved "children" of their wineries.

G.D. Vajra, Dolcetto D'Alba, Piemonte, Italy 2019	42	RP 89

Nebbiolo

---

The wines are Barolo and Barbaresco. The grape is Nebbiolo. Barolo is the Queen of Italian Wines. Barbaresco – the crowned Prince. These wines are lush, dense, incredibly concentrated, yet showing restraint and elegance. Completely age-worthy and still generous in their youth. Ideal with hearty cuisine and typically expensive, like royalty.

Travaglini Gattinara Nebbiolo, Piemonte, Italy 2016	63
Cantina del Pino Barbaresco, Piemonte, Italy 2011	300

Produttori Barbaresco, Piemonte, Italy 2015	69

---

Amarone & Valpolicella

---

The grapes are Corvina, Rondinella, and Molinara—the wines are memorable. Dark, chewy, luxurious. Like candy for grownups. Though highly concentrated, many retain a silky characteristic that sends you back for more and more. A perfect complement to hearty cheeses and dried fruit.

Allegrini Palazzo Della Torre Valpolicella, Veneto, Italy 2015	49
Zenato Ripasso Valpolicella Superiore, Veneto, Italy 2016	60

---

Indigenous Reds

---

This next section of red wines from Italy include stars from Campania, Sicily, Abruzzo, the boot heel of Puglia—all remarkably well made, but all quite different. These wines will lead to a great adventure on your palate and all are quite affordable.

Tenuta Sant' Antonio, Scaia Corvina, Veneto, Italy 2018	30
La Quercia Montepulciano d'Abbruzzo, Abruzzo, Italy 2018	35

Syrah, Zinfandel & Red Blends

---

Now planted all over the world, including Italy, Syrah exhibits different personalities depending on the vineyard site, but is almost always a masculine wine. Hearty, tannic, dense color and aroma. Wonderful with game or smoked meats and cheeses. Zinfandel has its roots in Italy with Primitivo surfacing in recent years as the “twin brother from another mother.”

Vigilance Cimarron, Lake County, California 2016	36
A blend of Zinfandel, Syrah, Petite Sirah and Cabernet results in a multilayered wine with good balance.

Malbec & Merlot

---

The siblings of Cabernet Sauvignon, these two gems are satisfying to a groomed palate, but tend to offer more simple pleasure than complicated conversation. Just enjoyable, balanced, full-bodied wines. Malbec has found a palace of a home in Argentina, while Merlot is best represented from California and France.

Ghost Pines Merlot, Napa Valley, California 2017	12/45
Don David Malbec Riserva, Salta-Cafayate, Argentina 2018	9/36
J. Lohr Los Osos, Paso Robles, California 2018	36

Keenan Merlot, Napa Valley, California 2014	90
Duckhorn Merlot, Napa Valley, California 2017	120

Cabernet Sauvignon

---

The king of red grapes, Cabernet Sauvignon is hailed as the mighty warrior to which all producers yield respect. Intense, yet framed and balanced, the best Cabernet Sauvignon exhibits strength with charm. Tannic, broad-shouldered, and best with red meat or cheeses.

Joel Gott 815 Napa Valley, California 2017	10/38
